District of Taylor NEWS RELEASE

Re: Recent Arrests in Taylor, BC

The District of Taylor applauds the local RCMP for its work late last week to apprehend a small number of people allegedly engaged in criminal activities while residing in Taylor. The District and the citizens of Taylor are grateful for the recent actions taken by the RCMP and Crown Counsel to detain these individuals while they await trial.

“Taylor is a wonderful family oriented community. It is a great and safe place to live, work, and play. The District’s Council and staff are working with the RCMP to help ensure Taylor remains the safe community that it has always been. The District is very thankful for the professional response by the RCMP in safely making these arrests.” Mayor Rob Fraser, District of Taylor.

The District of Taylor is looking into additional legal steps that it can take to help ensure the community remains safe and attractive for its residents and businesses.
